First Church of Christ, Scientist, Vero Beach

AUGUST 2022

Dear Members,

Its a quiet summer here in Vero Beach, so that means we have more time to study, right?

The Metaphysical Committee invites you all to join with them in their August topics for prayer:

Study and ponder the chapter Rudimental Divine Science found in Prose Works by Mary Baker Eddy. Give special attention to page 10. Pray for yourself, church, community and world. Also keep on praying about whether, and for those affected by it.

Hymn #2: “God is working His purpose out...”

Thank you for joining in their healing work.

The Reading Room will be closed on Monday, September 5th in observance of the Labor Day holiday.

New Books in the Reading Room: We hope you will come and visit and find that we have a couple of new books for children and adults. Have you seen “Stories of Healing: Jesus and his Followers” it’s in hard back, but we should be ordering soon, the paperback version. It includes notes of interest about the times and places etc. of the healings. Also, “Jesus’ little parables of the Kingdom” really good with next weeks lesson “Christ Jesus”. This is presented as a play by the Sunday School children of Fish River Crossing. Come take a look!!

The Mother Church: has announced that the Annual Meeting replay is now available in English, French, German, Portuguese and Spanish at christianscience.com/annualmeeting. Enjoy
